The new rule in the United States court as to impaneling juries was put to work yesterday. A grand jury of twenty-three and a petity jury of two were secured from a panel of forty-eight ummoned. Judge Hemmono ordered a new panel of forty eight to be summoned from the body of the district to fill up, the names to be drawn from a box. It will be a week before the United States marshal can summon these jurors from the counties in the district, and in consequence the call of the criminal and law docaets will not be called for a week. -At eight o'clock last evening, at the trestie en the Louisville road, near Third street, a tramp named Barney Kelly, of Blackberry, Illinois, and who was stealing a ride on the incoming train, leaped off over the trestie, falling a distance of thirty feet on tocks, breaking his right thigh and ankle and britisher. The Ninth and Tenth Wards in Earnes about Severiug their Relations with the Taxing-District-Speeches and Resolutions-Committee to Memorialize the Legislature.

A meeting of the citizens of the tenth ward was held agreeable to previous announcement made in the APPEAL, and attended by a very large number of the representative residents of that ward. Mr. George Hassengen was called to the chair, and Esquire Thomas Fleming appointed secretary. Colonel Charles W. Frazer being! called on, addressed the meeting, explaining the objects for which the meeting was called, and urging prompt action in the premises.

Esquire Gleason, of the nith ward, also called on, made a brief speech favoring movement, and especially as regards his (the ninth) ward. Mr. George Williams, Robert Miller, Dr. Brown, Hon. John Loague, Esquire R. B. Miller and others also favored the movement

Colonel Charles W. Frazer presented the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHENEAS, It being the sense of this meeting that the limits known as the ninth and tenth wards of Memphis, are, by the authorities of that chy, almost wholly neglected, while taxes were regularly levied (some of which were illegal), and the citizens compelled to bear tribute to more favored localities when the law required their expenditure in said wards; and

Colonel Charles W. Frazer presented the

the law required their expenditure in said wards; and WHERRAS, It is now contemplated by the TaxingDistrict of Shelby county to use a vast amount of money in sewering and paying within said District, such sums to be raised by special taxation, and so far as this meeting has been informed, not one doilar of it is to be expended in said wards, which composes a part of said District; and WHERRAS, Said Taxing-District has almost wholly falled in its dult toward said ninth and tenth wards, nor is it believed that it is within the power of said Taxing-District to make even the most necessary repairs and improvements in said wards, for the want of funds, and that taxes will be levied and collected without any benefit whatever; now, therefore, be it Risolved, by the citizens in said ward in meeting assembled: First—That a committee of eight from each ward be appointed by the chairman, who shall at once prepare suitable memorials and petitions to said Taxing-District government and to the legislature, soon to assemble, setting forth our grievances, and asking that the territory composing said wards be remitted to the said county of Sheiby by proper amendments to the act creating said TaxingDistrict.

Exercised. That said committee prepare the draft of

Recting Last Night-Report of Superlatendent-Reports of Committees-Report of President-Change in Text-Books Under Suspension of Rules.

At the usual hour last night the educa-tional toard met at the Odd-Fellows' building. The following named centlemen were present: Messrs. J. Walsh, J. E Randle, M. S. Rhett, Dr. W. T. Arnington, J. J. Duffy, E. Keck, George W. Dent, W. A. Goodman, G. V. Rambaut, M. C. Trezevant, T. B. Edgington, James Rulston, W. C. Folkes, L. H. Estes, J. P. Carey. The meeting was called to order by President Folkes, when the following business was transacted: REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT.

The superintendent, Mr. Foute, made a port as follows: Average attendance in white schools, 1268; in colored schools, 285; total, 1553; number in white schools Decem ber 1st, 1665; in colored schools, 395; total, 2060. Since that date there has been an increase in attendance, and the number is now estimated at 2400. During November two schoo's belonging to Court street school wers removed to Hotel D'Europe, corner of Taird and Jefferson streets, and the three schools of the North Memphis colored schools were removed from Second street to a building at the corner of Front and Winchester streets. The removals in each case was owing to the condemnation of he original quarters by the board of health. The superintendent, in November, appointed schools, and he asked the board to confirm the appointment. Misses Lizzie Foley and Lena Berry were appointed supernumerary teachers at the Smith and Merrill schools, here being vacancies in the same, and the board was asked to confirm said appointnents. Sixty-seven dollars were collected vovember 30th. The superintendent tailed attention to the sanitary report made by the National board of health inspectors, and asked that the recommendations be attended to. At the examination of applican's for certificates, held last Saturday, nine white and ten colored appeared and were examined, of which number three white and one colored attained the required average and are entitled AUDITING COMMITTEE

The accounts for the months of July, August, September, October and November, as presented by the auditing committee, were ordered paid. The report of the auditing committee was read, received and adopted. FINANCE COMMITTEE. The finance committee reported as follows: INDEBTEDNESS.

n hands of trustee from Taxing-District...$ 127 77 n hands of trustee from cit; of Memphis... 33 45 n hands of trustee from county....... 1.500 00

..$1,600 00 The county trustee informed the finance ommittee that he has reason to believe that collections, especially from the county, will be good after January 1st. The report was SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Mr. Trezevant, chairman of the committee on school buildings, read the paper on "The Condition of School Buildings," as issued by he inspector of the National board of health, condemning several buildings for bad ventilation, unsanitary privies and sur, oundings, and bad water supply. The entire mat-ter was referred to the building committee, with power to act and remedy the defect pointed out by the sanitary inspector. PRIVY-VAULTS AND EARTH CLOSETS. Mr. Trezevant said that the president of the health board had informed him that the privy-vaults at school buildings would have cleaned out, disinfected and filled up, and earth-closets substituted in place of the same. No action was taken in the matter. COMMITTEE ON TEACHERS. Cus, colored, as teachers of the grammar grades. The report also recommended the election of Mr. John S. Collins as superintendent of the high school. The report also recommended that Misses Foley and Berry be elected teachers of the public schools, as supernumerary teachers. The report recommended Miss Fannie Dougherty and Miss Lottie Miller, white, and Mr. Granville Maranas colored.

COMMITTEE ON APPEALS. Dr. Arrington, chairman of the committee on appeals, made a report, which was re-terred to the superintendent, with power to President Folkes presented his annual re-port, and apologized for having so to do. The report referred to school business; the late epidemic; the maintenance of the high schools as a branch of the school system; the school revenue uncollected in tax s; the large attendance at the public schools, equal to that of last year; the ability and energy of the teachers employed; recommended the employment of special teachers when neces-sary; advocated keeping up the standard of examination for teachers, and establishing a primary grade of examination; apologized for trespassing upon the time of the board, and thanking the members for their kindness toward him during his term of office. The recommendations contained in the report were referred to the committee on teachers.

COMMITTEE ON TEXT BOOKS. Mr. Goodman, chairman of the committee, desired to present a report, but objection was raised to hearing the report, owing to a resolution adopted a previous meeting. This action was reconsidered by a vote of eleven to four, and reading the report was declared in order. Mr. General in read the report of his com-

Model Copybook and Stephens's History of the United States, and their introduction into the public schools; also, Appleton's course of Readers was recommended for adoption; also, Watson's Complete Speller.
Mr. Trezevant offered a minority report concuring in the minority report, except as to a change in the readers now in use. The board entered into a discussion of the reports and became interested in analyzing parliamentary rules of the most complex character as to two-thirds majority, appeal from the decision of the chair, changes of standing rules, Cushing's manual. Mr. Edgington moved that rule 60 of the board be suspended. EXECUTIVE PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, During the present year yellow-fover, in epidemic form, has again scourged Memphis, entailing a great loss of life, destroyin; capital, paralyzing trade and seriously impairing the general prosperity, and imperiling the public health of the entire State: and entire State; and Whereas, Medical and sanitary experts of the highest standing, after personal inspection, have reported officially to the local government of Memphis, that certain sanitary improvements are essentially necessary to exempt Memphis from a leturn of the pestilence; and
Whereas, By an act of the legislature approved January 31, 1879, the charter of Memphis was repealed; and Whereas, It is further provided in said act that all power of taxation, in any farm whatever, theretefore vested in the municipal government of Memphis, is forever withdrawn and reserved to the legislature; and
Whereas, By an act of the legislature approved
January 31, 1879, and amended by an act approved March 13, 1879, an annual tax of fifty cents on the hundled collars was levied upon all taxable property within the territorial limits of the extinct corporation of the city of Memphis; and also, a tax on privileges for State purposes, for the repair and paving of streets and bridges, and for constructing sewers, drains and for sanitary purposes; and Whereas, It has been reported to me by the local government of Memphis that the amount of tax so levied is inad quate to defray the expenses of the sanitary improvements declared to be processary to protect Memphis against a return of the reliowfever, and alleging that it will require an additional levy, of not exceeding one per cent, on the hundred dollars, to be levied and paid on the first day of February, 1880, and one per cent, on the hundred dollars to be levied and paid on the first of December, 1880; and Whereas, There are other subjects of legislation affecting the public interests requiring legislation;
Now, therefore, by virus of the power and authority in me veet d by see ion 9, article 3, of the constitution of the State I, Albe t S. Marks, Governor of the State
